

Afternoon Tea

'A luxurious and elegant experience – perfect for everyday'

Anna 7th Duchess of Bedford first introduced the delightful Afternoon Tea in the early 19th Century. Through the years, it has remained as a lovely way to catch up on family news or reminisce with old friends. Galgorm provides the perfect opportunity to indulge in some delicious treats. Take in the beautiful surroundings as your waiter brings you a pot of freshly brewed tea, finely cut sandwiches, freshly baked scones and delicate pastries.

Allow us to serve you tradition at its finest...
